

COPHIP 2010 Activities

	Core Services and Quality Standards	Assessment and Planning	Financing and Funding	Public Health Roles and Relationships	Workforce Development	Data, Technology and Public Health Informatics
Jan-March 2010	Release of Core Services for use Beta-test of national PHAB standards at 30 state and local agencies throughout the country	Survey of local public health agencies on assessment and planning experience and needs	CDPHE leadership come together to lead work on improving department's business practices	Public Health Act Advisory Group transitions to Public Health Improvement Steering Committee	The CSPH forms workforce development task force
April-June 2010		Convene Assessment and Planning task force to develop tools and process Convene Public Health Indicators Task Force to develop public health indicator list Collect and review successful state models for assessment and planning	ASTHO provides technical assistance on aligning business practices between state and local public health Grants Administration Task Force convenes and forms two teams, Team Invoice and The Streamliners Internal CDPHE pilot group develops new contract process improvements	NACCHO's Survive and Thrive leadership program for new public health directors begins State affiliate NALBOH formed with county commissioners and local boards of health Local board of health orientation at CCI conference Local board of health booklet released CALPHO reorganized to include PHDoC, directors of new agencies, and representatives from the nursing directors, environmental health directors, administrative directors, and CDPHE		Environmental Public Health Tracking Network begins developing dashboard

	Core Services and Quality Standards	Assessment and Planning	Financing and Funding	Public Health Roles and Relationships	Workforce Development	Data, Technology and Public Health Informatics
July-Sept 2010	Grant submitted to CDC to strengthen system with quality improvement and conduct baseline capacity assessment	Indicators task force adopts Health Equity Framework to use as overall data framework Assessment and Planning task force agrees on standard components: Community Health Status Report, a Capacity Assessment Report, criteria for setting priorities and prioritization tool, and the improvement plan format First round of Preventive Block Grant funding to support the local public health agencies serving as pilot sites to develop and test the assessment and planning processes	Team Invoice works on standardizing invoicing and documentation for all contracts from CDPHE to local public health agencies The Streamliners works on a standard form of communicating state and local government funding opportunity announcements from CDPHE to locals		The Center for Public Health Practice will adopt the Council on Linkages Public Health Competencies and the 10 Essential Public Health Services to serve as a framework for workforce development activities The Colorado School of Public Health graduates over a hundred students in 2010 Public Health in the Rockies Conference centered on professional development and building a career in public health	Begin discussing data management system for public health indicators
Oct – Dec 2010	The Office of Planning and Partnerships is awarded 5-year CDC cooperative agreement to work on quality improvement OPP and CALPHO begin developing tool and process for baseline capacity assessment	Indicators task force completes list of recommended indicators Pilot sites continue to work on assessment and planning process Community Health Assessment and Planning System (CHAPS) development	Grants Administration task force discuss 2011 improvement opportunities	Public Health Improvement Steering Committee discusses need for 2011 Summit to celebrate successes and future vision	The Colorado School of Public Health receives a Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) 5-year grant to fund a Colorado Public Health Training Center (CO-PHTC), housed within the Center for Public Health Practice The Colorado School of Public Health receives accreditation as a collaborative school of public health Colorado hosted the 2010 APHA Conference and Exposition	